

Datalogger Base Board

The Datalogger Base Board is a general purpose base board which has connectors for the C167 processor and any of our patch board range. It also has a power supply and RS422 / CAN transceivers.

This board can be used to supply a general purpose datalogger .

Demonstration software is available.

Features

- Connectors for patch and processor boards
- Terminal blocks for connecting to field equipment
- RS422 interface
- CAN Interface
- Demonstration software available